The new hue of the Renovated

MARRIOTT RESORT
PUERTO VALLARTA

Marriott Puerto Vallarta Resort & Spa invites travelers to “Discover the Lights of the Pacific” at its fully reimagined resort, celebrating the completion of a two-year and more than $20 million renovation project that spanned its lobby and common areas, guest rooms and suites, and, most recently, an upgraded pool and new dining concept.

FUN, CHIC, FOODIE FRIENDLY AND TASTY

Renovations to Champions Sports Bar, Mikado Japanese Restaurant and Deli Los Mangos, where guests enjoy fresh roast coffee and local snacks.

The new Ceviche & Tequila Bar, located in the open-air lobby, with an impressive wall featuring 180 different tequilas, mescal, draft beers, and freshly prepared ceviche.

DIVE INTO OUR NEW POOL

Unveiling a spectacular upgrade to its infinity pool, having relocated the swim-up bar for full 180-degree views of Banderas Bay and its iconic mountains. A new raised pool deck area with cocoon daybeds and the addition of 700 new lounge chairs, and a Spa Palapa around the infinity pool. The new Coco Bar is located under a poolside palapa serving fresh chilled coconut water and cocktails.

UP & UP: 28 Suites in seven categories, with living area and private terrace.

A meticulous remodel of the resort's 433 upscale, ocean-facing guest rooms and suites. Led by G+G Interior Design, a Mexico City-based company, the designers drew their inspiration from the Jalisco region, with guest room interiors celebrating and paying homage to the natural elements that embrace Mexico's Pacific coast. Each refurbished room boasts a streamlined yet modern aesthetic featuring sleek furniture and remodeled bathrooms with rainforest showers, granite vanity countertops with chrome fixtures, and enhanced lighting all throughout.
